The Open Society Foundations work to build vibrant and tolerant democracies whose governments are accountable to their citizens.

Open Society Foundations

The open society was conceived in 1932 by French philosopher Henri Bergson. The idea was further developed during the Second World War by Austrian-born British philosopher Karl Popper.. Bergson describes a closed society as a closed system of law or religion. It is static, like a closed mind. Bergson suggests that if all traces of civilization were to disappear, the instincts of the closed ...
